

August 1, 1946

Report: Limitations of Allied Access to Information in the British Zone

Citation:

"Report: Limitations of Allied Access to Information in the British Zone", August 1, 1946,
Wilson Center Digital Archive, British Intelligence
<https://wilson-center-digital-archive.dvincitest.com/document/209321>

Summary:

Appendix A of the report lists subject areas.

Original Language:

English

Contents:

Original Scan

COPY.~~TOP SECRET~~

APPENDIX "A".

LIMITATIONS ON ALLIED ACCESS TO INFORMATION IN THE BRITISH ZONE.Subject.Ministry Interested.

(a)

Applied Nuclear Physics	}	(M. of S.
Radar and asdic counter measures			A.M. & Admiralty
Pressurised aeriels for 3 and 10 cm. GSR in-U-boats	}	(Admiralty.
Control of guided missiles & homing devices			Admiralty, A.M. M.O.S.
Information concerning codes, cyphers, methods of communication w/T deception or intelligence gained	}	(
Kurier Gerät			Admiralty
Depth keeping gear for submarines	}	(
Long-range smooth bore gun development			W.O. A.M.
Very high voltage investigation	}	(
Position-finding instruments (Prof. Eider)			M.A.P.
Method of causing temporary blindness by ultra-violet rays	}	(W.O. A.M.
Biological warfare =			W.O. A.M. & Admiralty
Infra-red equipment	}	(
Underwater propulsion employing hydrogen peroxide
URSEL (underwater rocket gun)	}	(
LERCHE (wire controlled homing torpedo)			Admiralty
FASAN (acoustic pattern torpedo)	}	(
NIBELUNG (radio device)
Manufacturing routine of new German War Gas "SARIN"	}	(
Results of trials with "SARIN"			M. of S.
German physiological trials of C.W. gases	}	(

(b)

Subjects (and/or relative targets) on which experimental work is being carried out under British direction; these will among others include:

D.V.L. PRIWALL.	M. of S.
L.P.A. Frauen, Nr. Fassberg (Hanover)
Equipment collected from Russian Zone by Sir Roy Hedden and stored in Göttingen	M.A.P.
Super-sonic Aero Dynamics	A.M.
Mosec, Altenwalde, Nr. Cuxhaven
C.P.V.A. Dönsche Nienhof, Nr. Kiel
Research station, Völkensrode.

All others are in process of liquidation and are therefore open to inspection by Allies.

- Covers any report of an interview with those dealing with the planned use as an offensive weapon of a living body, whether insect, parasite, microbe, bacteria, spore, fungus, or any toxic project produced by any of them. Also German Intelligence Reports on progress on this subject in other countries.
- Covers devices for seeing at night with aid of invisible infra-red light. German code names for such known devices are "UHU", "FUMA", "FALKE", "VAMPIRE", "KATERGERAT".

~~TOP SECRET~~