

January 30, 1990

Romania: Securitate Back in Business□□□

Citation:

"Romania: Securitate Back in Business", January 30, 1990, Wilson Center Digital Archive, Approved for Release by the Central Intelligence Agency, October 29, 2019.
<https://wilson-center-digital-archive.dvincitest.com/document/209543>

Summary:

An analysis of persistent opposition demonstrations and the National Salvation Front's decision to increase the role of the Securitate.

Original Language:

English

Contents:

Original Scan

1040

~~Top Secret~~

[Redacted]

6.2(d)

ROMANIA: Securitate Back in Business

Continued antiregime demonstrations are prompting the ruling National Salvation Front (FSN) to turn for support to former dictator Ceausescu's ruthless secret police.

[Redacted]

3.3(b)(1)
6.2(d)

Comment: The current low profile of the Securitate is likely to change if, as is likely, the FSN continues to come under attack for its halfhearted support for democratic reform. Involvement of Securitate personnel in containing unrest greatly increases the likelihood that antigovernment demonstrations will turn violent. As was the case during the overthrow of Ceausescu, the Romanian military could play the key role in the FSN's survival.

[Redacted]

6.2(d)

NR Record

~~Top Secret~~
TCS 2724/90
30 January 1990