for you all of these years. Perhaps you will be able to check with the Order in Pittsburgh, Pa. and find out how many years it is since your Priests were here at our Parish--St. Margaret's Church in Cleveland, Ohio.

This length of time will prove to you--my true friendship--werm. feeling towards you and your country.

You have a fine country--loyal and good people and vory sweet looking children--keep then cindrenty---gono them peace--so that once again you can start all oggy graphing straight with you--and will help all we can. Just ask aggs possering in America--whatever your needs may be--end we will all be willing to help you.

Even if I am a small person and a nobody-but the read me to do some whing for you-to help you--if I could not you'--I would look for someone who would be able to help you.

Is know it was a cruel ordeal—your post years—but just as a seed as planted in the ground—it must rot—(end suffer-and then burst) before it can bloom again. So it is with givenery longs dear people now—you are all in the seed form—suffering——but on you just wait until the blossoms bloom ambing longs thereby becutiful it will be. But this can the blossoms bloom ambing longer because the blossoms bloom ambing long where the beautiful it will be. But this can only happen first—if you he last knows no peace, while the servence of the wonged on very much—and present that knows no peace, by the first survey that the concentration of the trips present by the first survey that the concentration of the trips present the peace comes into your heart survey and shall be come into your heart in peace——then the clossoms shall be considered to the constitution of the c
