Title: "The Prime Minister's Visit to China: The Meeting with Chairman Deng: on the Philippines Situation"

Cable No. 3027

Secret, Urgent

When asked by the Prime Minister what he thought of the Aquino administration, Deng said that China has a friendly policy. I think the trend of the Aquino administration is good. And while there will be many difficulties ahead for the regime, China will not do anything to embarrass the regime. There are problems with the Communist Party and the guerrillas, but China doesn't help the guerrillas. This was clearly communicated to the Philippines.

(The Prime Minister asked if he could tell them the above story as he is meeting with President Aquino on May 10.) That's fine.

[Cable] relayed to the [Japanese diplomatic missions in] the Philippines.
