

August 9, 1973
Memorandum of Conversation, 'French Nuclear Discussion'

Citation:

"Memorandum of Conversation, 'French Nuclear Discussion'", August 9, 1973, Wilson Center Digital Archive, Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library, National Security Advisor, Memoranda of Conversation, box 2, 8/9/73 Kissinger Schlesinger. Obtained and contributed by William Burr and included in NPIHP Research Update #2.
<https://wilson-center-digital-archive.dvincitest.com/document/113224>

Summary:

Transcript of conversation between Kissinger and Schlesinger. Kissinger wants to make Galley "drool" by keeping him interested without actually giving anything up. Kissinger worries about what the British want in terms of Polaris and notes that putting the French on the same footing as the U.S. would scare the British enough to get their point across.

Original Language:

English

Contents:

Original Scan