

February 1, 1955
Report from the Chinese Foreign Ministry,
'Existence of Diplomatic Relations Between Afro-Asian Conference Participant Countries and the Jiang Bandits'

Citation:

"Report from the Chinese Foreign Ministry, 'Existence of Diplomatic Relations Between Afro-Asian Conference Participant Countries and the Jiang Bandits'", February 1, 1955, Wilson Center Digital Archive, PRC FMA 207-00021-01, 1-2. Translated by Jeffrey Wang. <https://wilson-center-digital-archive.dvincitest.com/document/113244>

Summary:

The note details whether the participating countries in the Asian-African Conference have diplomatic relations with Taiwan.

Credits:

This document was made possible with support from MacArthur Foundation

Original Language:

Chinese

Contents:

Translation - English

[...]

Existence of Diplomatic Relations Between Afro-Asian conference Participant Countries and the Jiang [Jieshi] Bandits

1. Countries without diplomatic relations with the Jiang Bandits: Democratic Republic of Vietnam, India, Burma, Indonesia, Pakistan, Ceylon, Laos, Nepal, Afghanistan; total of nine countries.

2. Countries that exchange ambassadors with Jiang Bandits: Japan, Philippines, Turkey; total of three countries.

3. Countries that Jiang Bandits established embassies with:

Thailand: Exchanges embassies with the Jiang bandits, they currently exchange charge d' affaire.

Iran: Jiang bandits have an embassy there.

Iraq: Jiang bandits have an embassy there.

Egypt: Jiang bandits have an embassy in Cairo.

4. Countries that have consul [level] relations with the Jiang bandits:

Bao Dai Regime: Jiang bandits have established a consul in Saigon, both sides are currently negotiating the establishment of formal diplomatic relations.

Cambodia: There is a Jiang bandit consul within their borders. Taiwanese bandits once suggested through the Bao Dai Regime to Cambodia that they should recognize [the Republic of China]. Cambodia responds by "proceeding slowly".

Saudi Arabia: Jiang bandits have an embassy there, other details unknown.

5. Other relationships:

Libya: Jiang bandits recognized Libyan independence in 1951.

Syria, Lebanon: According to Taipei Central News Agency on July 21st 1954, bandit [Republic of China Foreign Minister] George Yeh said that Jiang bandits are likely to establish consuls in Syria and Lebanon, other details unknown.

6. Countries whose relationship with Jiang bandits are unknown: Jordan, Yemen, Gold Coast, Central African Federation, Abyssinia, Liberia, Sudan; total of seven countries.

Other situations:

South Korea: [South Korea currently] exchanges ambassadors with Jiang bandits

Union of South Africa: Jiang bandits have a major consul established in Johannesburg in South Africa.

Israel: [Israel] does not have diplomatic relations with Jiang bandits.