8 October 1950 11.20

On 8 October I met with Kim II Sung and read him your letter.

Pak Heon-Yeong [Pak Hon Yong] was present during our talk and it was he who translated the contents of the letter.

Kim II Sung recorded the contents of the letter into his working notebook.

The contents of the letter had a great impact on Kim II Sung and Pak Heon-Yeong. It was obvious that they received it with great pleasure.

Kim II Sung exclaimed "now our future is clear."

Turning to Pak Heon-Yeong, Kim II Sung said that we need to take serious measures in order to strengthen our position on the front and speed up the creation of more reserves.
