AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE NETHERLANDS COUNCIL FOR TRADE PROMOTION AND
THE JAPAN EXTERNAL TRADE ORGANIZATION

The Netherlands Council for Trade Promotion hereafter to be referred to as NCTP and the Japan External Trade Organization, hereafter to be referred to as JETRO, have agreed to assist each to the other in the common fields of activities for the purpose of promoting the development of economic relations between their respective countries and reached agreement as follows.

Article 1

Parties shall, in close cooperation each with the other, endeavour to promote commercial and industrial relations between The Netherlands and Japan with all possible means at their disposal.

Article 2

Parties shall provide each other's officials with every information on commerce, industry, agriculture, fishery and services that is considered desirable or necessary for a successful pursuance of the objectives as outlined in article 1. In line herewith, parties shall extend each to the other every facility needed by carrying out market surveys in their respective countries.

Article 3

Parties shall render every assistance to each other's officials if and when either party holds or participates in a trade fair or any suchlike event in their respective countries.

Article 4

Parties shall furnish businessmen, research-teams, industrials and market-analysts, visiting each other's countries, with formal Letters of Introduction. Such introductions shall vouch for the good standing and the seriousness of the intentions of the introduced person or persons, who shall be, therefore, entitled to full counselling and introductory assistance from the receiving party.

Article 5

Parties shall regularly exchange trade enquiries and publish them respectively in the "Nieuws van Buitenlandse Markten" (News from Foreign Markets) of the NCTP and in the "Jetro Trade Enquiry" of JETRO, whereas they shall also disseminate them directly to enterprises or organizations of good standing who are to be taken into consideration for the purpose.

Article 6

In the spirit of mutual assistance, officials of both organizations shall meet every year alternately in Tokyo and in The Hague in order to interchange opinions on current practical problems of trade promotion and to contemplate ways and means of further improvement in mutual assistance procedures.

Article 7

Close liaison shall be maintained between the secretary of the Japan Council of the NCTP and the JETRO representative in the Netherlands, who shall meet at least once every month. X

Article 8

All of the aforementioned activities under the reciprocal assistance programme shall solely serve the purpose of practical trade promotion on the broadest possible basis. Problems of general trade policies shall be regarded upon as affairs of the proper government agencies and therefore beyond the scope of the activities under discussion.

Article 9

This agreement goes into effect on the date of its signature and shall be valid for an indefinite period. Intent of termination of the said agreement shall have to be notified by registered letter, stipulating a commensurate term of notice not shorter than six months.

Done in the Hague on the Seventh Day of the Month of June in the year Nineteensixty-six, in two original copies, both written in the English language, the two texts being equally authentic.

the Netherlands Council for Trade Promotion.

The Korea Committee for the Promotion of International Trade and the Netherlands Council for Trade Promotion for the purpose of further developing economic and trade relations on the basis of equality and mutual benefit, have through friendly consultation, reached agreement as follows:

Article 1

The Contracting Parties shall use their best endeavours, within the framework of the laws and regulations concerning foreign trade in force in each country, to promote positive measures in order to facilitate the exchange of goods, transportation services and other facilities, and to develop economic and trade relations between the two countries.

Article 2

The exchange of goods between the Contracting Parties will be carried out according to the annexed lists A and B which are an inseparable part of this agreement.
Non- indicated goods in the annexed A and B can be interchanged.
The Contracting Parties undertake to urge their respective authorities to grant import and export licenses accordingly.

Article 3
