UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION FOR THE UNIFICATION AND REHABILITATION OF KOREA
(UNCURK)CONFIDENTIAL

Seoul, 14 January 1971

Dear Mr. Narasimhan,

The U.N. Commission for the Unification and Rehabilitation of Korea is expected to hold its first session for the new year at its headquarters in Seoul on 10 and 11 February. The session will be presided over by the Turkish Representative, Ambassador B.N. Kestelli.

The main task of the Commission early in the year will be to prepare its plans to observe the Presidential and National Assembly elections which are slated to be held in May and June respectively.

No decision has been made yet as to whether the Commission should send two separate reports this year or to include the developments of the elections in its summer report to the General Assembly. There is also a general awareness at the same time that the Commission will be called on to use to the maximum its present limited resources in order to observe both elections in view of the absence of Pakistan and the withdrawal of Chile.

With warmest personal regards,

Yours sincerely,
