U.N. Secretary-General,
United Nations Organisation,
New York.

We the members of Nepal Korea Friendship Association and Nepal Committee For Supporting Reunification of Korea extend our compliments to Your Excellency and take this liberty to address Your Excellency expressing our deep concern on the fact that Korea still remains divided thirty-four years after its liberation. We beg to draw Your Excellency's attention to the fact that the U.N. resolution adopted by the 30th session of U.N. We beg to convey to Your Excellency our firm opinion that the Korean people should be allowed to unify their fatherland peacefully with their own efforts without

General Assembly.
