

July 14, 1954

Letter, Young P. Lee, Acting Chairman of Asian Peoples' Anti-Communist League Central Liaison Office, to Nguyen Van Tam

Citation:

"Letter, Young P. Lee, Acting Chairman of Asian Peoples' Anti-Communist League Central Liaison Office, to Nguyen Van Tam", July 14, 1954, Wilson Center Digital Archive, B-387-003, Documents Related to the Asian Anti-Communist League Conference, Papers Related to Treaty-Making and International Conferences, Syngman Rhee Institute, Yonsei University.

<https://wilson-center-digital-archive.dvincitest.com/document/118306>

Summary:

Young P. Lee writes to Nguyen Van Tam and urges him to send delegates to the Central Liaison Office of the Asian Peoples' Anti-Communist League in Seoul.

Credits:

This document was made possible with support from Syngman Rhee Institute, Yonsei University

Original Language:

English

Contents:

Original Scan

ASIAN PEOPLES' ANTI-COMMUNIST LEAGUE

Central Liaison Office

Seoul, Korea

Republic of Korea

14 July 1954

His Excellency, Nguyen Van Tam
263 Rue Legrand de la Liraye
Saigon, Vietnam

Your Excellency:

As you all know, the Central Liaison Office of our Asian Peoples' Anti-Communist League is just beginning its operations. This is a crucially important time in the fight against Communism, and we must implement the activities of the League quickly and with maximum effectiveness.

We hope, therefore, that you will be able to send one member of your delegation to Korea to work with the Central Liaison Office in the furtherance of our common objectives. All of us need the sage counsel and help of all the others, and such central cooperation is the only way to achieve that objective at this time.

If we can gather momentum now, we shall be able to evaluate the position of our mortal enemy, International Communism, and take the necessary steps to assure its defeat. Quick action is of the essence. The Central Liaison Office must be made an efficient, going concern just as soon as possible, and that will require the assistance of all of you.

We shall greatly appreciate your views upon this urgent matter, and hope that you will be able to send a representative to the Central Liaison Office within the next few weeks.

With best personal wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Young P. Lee
Acting Chairman