My dear Gen. Coulter:

I authorized the Minister of Defense to get in touch with you and discuss the matter of the Civil Transport Corps as per your letter of May 17. Mr. Lee reported that he had a talk with you to the effect that an agreement had been reached to establish a disciplinary procedure by an American and Korean officer under which violators of the established measures will be punished by Korean law.

Sincerely yours,

Lieutenant General John B. Coulter

Deputy Army Commander

Eighth United States Army
