OFFICE OF THE COMMANDING GENERAL
APO 343, San Francisco, California

12 January 1955

Dear Mr. President:

Your many friends in this part of the world have been following with anxious interest the condition of your health during and following the recent operation. We were all so happy to receive the encouraging reports from the attending surgeons, indicating the success of the operation and the favorable forecast for a speedy recovery. I sincerely hope that you are resting comfortably and will soon be able to resume a normal life.

Sincerely yours,

MAXWELL D. TAYLOR
General, U. S. Army
Commanding

His Excellency, Syngman Rhee
President of the Republic of Korea
Kyung Mu Dai
