My dear General Taylor:

I thank you for your letter of 13 August concerning the desirability of General Lee Byung Kum visiting the United States in the near future.

It would be appreciated if arrangements could be made for General Lee to visit the United States to study the organization of the United States Joint Chiefs of Staff. It would also be most helpful if arrangements could be made for him to travel immediately to join Admiral Sohm in negotiations between the American and Korean authorities.

Yours sincerely,

General Maxwell D. Taylor,
Commanding General,
Headquarters,
Eighth United States Army.
