Dear Mrs. Goodfellow:

This week's mail brought your letter and a note from Colonel Goodfellow in regard to Mr. Henry Buckardt. The President has read the note and is appreciative for bringing Mr. Buckardt's name to his attention.

I have asked our office to find out if Miss Kang had petitioned to the government for financial aid. We did not even know that ICA has funds available for such a contingency. I wish you would advise Miss Kang to write directly to the Foreign Ministry and request for whatever she wants. I am sure they will give careful consideration to her request.

I do appreciate your taking such a keen interest in our students and I know they are very grateful to you.

With my best wishes to you and Colonel Goodfellow.

Very sincerely,

Mrs. M. Preston Goodfellow
