His Excellency
Dr. Syngman Rhee
President, Republic of Korea
Seoul, Korea

Dear Mr. President:

When Jay Williams returned from his trip to Korea he gave me, of course, all the news about you and my other dear friends in the ROK. Needless to say, I was delighted to learn that you still were enjoying good health and were as active mentally and physically as you have ever been.

I am writing this letter to ask a small personal favor of you, and that is that you shake hands with and meet a young Sergeant in our Army in Korea whose name is Sgt. R. James K. Cromwell, ER 12,372,524, Hq. 7th Infantry, Division T.I. & E., who is currently stationed in Korea. Although this young man is only distantly related to me, he is a son-in-law of one of my old and dear friends from the City of Philadelphia. Sergeant Cromwell would consider it a very great honor if you would spare a couple of minutes of your busy days to meet him.

I am sending word to Sergeant Cromwell to make application to your Secretary at the Kyung Mu Dai for a brief audience with you. Would you therefore, if you are not too busy, leave word with your appointment staff, when Sergeant Cromwell makes his application.

With kindest regards to you and to Madame Rhee, I am as ever,

Your devoted friend

James Cromwell
