Dear General Walter:

I appreciate your earnest cooperation and your many courtesies, one of which was the assignment of Colonel John A. Carrigan to me as advisor.

Colonel Carrigan has given me his advice and assistance since April 2. His counsel has been fine and helpful. I realize I could not expect the services of an officer of the army permanently, and therefore inform you that he is now available to you for reassignment.

I regret it has become necessary for Colonel Carrigan to depart, and wish to express appreciation for his sincere and most capable help and thank you for lending him to me.

Cordially,

SR.

Brigadier-General Mercer C. Walter
Commanding General KCAC
Seoul, Korea
