July 25, 1969 Letter from Harry S. Truman to Congressman Kastenmeier

Citation:

"Letter from Harry S. Truman to Congressman Kastenmeier", July 25, 1969, Wilson Center Digital Archive, Personal papers of Milton Leitenberg. https://wilson-center-digital-archive.dvincitest.com/document/123088

Summary:

Truman denies the use of bacteriological weapons by the United States during the Korean War.

Original Language:

English

Contents:

Original Scan Transcript - English Wilson Center Digital Archive

HARRY S TRUMAN Original Scan INDEPENDENCE, MISSOURI July 25, 1969

Dear Congressman Kastenmeier:

In reply to your letter of July 11th, I wish to state categorically that I did not amend any Presidential Order in force regarding biological weapons nor did I at any time give my approval to its use.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Robert W.Kastenmeier House of Representatives Washington, D. C. 20515

Note

President Truman's signature appeared in the original letter.

HARRY S TRUMAN INDEPENDENCE, MISSOURI July 25, 1969

Dear Congressman Kastenmeier:

In reply to your letter of July 11th, I wish to state categorically that I did not amend any Presidential Order in force regarding biological weapons, nor did I at any time give my approval to its use.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Robert W.Kastenmeier House of Representatives Washington, D. C. 20515

Note

President Truman's signature appeared in the original letter.