No. 9

To Minister Young Kee Kim

From the President

I am in receipt of your Report No. 91 and copy of your report of 11 August to the Acting Foreign Minister, and wish to thank you for them.

I am pleased that you are planning to hold a large reception to celebrate the 15 August. You can well imagine the activity today as everyone prepares for the occasion. I have had a very busy time receiving numerous visitors which include a group of twenty-one old friends from Hawaii. Ambassadors Yang and Limb, Ambassador Yeh from Formosa and many others have already arrived.

I shall write you at more length by next pouch.
