I have just been informed by Fujita that my press release of yesterday had been discussed by the Japs in the government. Although the contents of the discussion are not known to Fujita, he stated that Kondo, the information chief of the Foreign Office took it up with his superiors.

I have just received a call from Yatsugi that he would invite Kishi to his home between 4:30 to 6:00 p.m. on the 23rd. He asked that I and the ambassador be present at that time.
