| has further advised that KAIATOZOV has had | | | | |
|---|--|--|--|--|
| considerable contact with Soviet Film Representative in | | | | |
| Mexico City: Artkino Films, New York; | | | | |
| in New York City; and , | | | | |
| several other prominent persons in Hollywood engaged either in the production | | | | |
| or distribution of films. These negotiations have apparently been for the | | | | |
| purpose of securing American films for distribution in Russia and for the | | | | |
| popularization and sale of Russian films in the United States (3) W | | | | |
| On April 15, 1944, associate of CHARLES CHAPLIN, advised that he was giving a dinner party for prominent Negress dancer, and that he would like Mr. and Mrs. KALATOZOV to attend. stated that he would have them come with Mr. CHAPLIN. The KALATOZOVS accepted the invitation (5) W | | | | |
| On April 18, 1944 talked with her husband, and informed him that MIKHAIL KALATOZOV had just received the Order of the Red Star upon the recommendation of the Soviet Government. She was at a loss at that time to determine why it had been presented to him. However, at a later date she informed another party that he received the Order of the Red Star for his participation in the Defense of Leningrad (4) W | | | | |

The April 7th issue of the "Hollywood Reporter", which is a daily movie newspaper, contained an article which was the result of a press conference which KALATOZOV recently held with the representatives of various Los Angeles newspapers.

This article stated that negotiations were now under way between a major American movie company and KALATOZOV for reciprocal distribution of Hollywood and Russian films in both countries. The purpose of this deal is to start a flow of pictures between the two countries immediately, working out a program of distribution for suitable films acceptable to the peoples of both the United States and the sixteen Soviet Republics.

The article stated that the inference was given that any suitable American pictures from any major studio would be included, "thus obviously giving the American producing organization involved in the deal a strong bargaining weapon in other directions". The article continued that as evidence of a desire on the part of the U.S.S.R. to promote cordial and friendly relations with the American industry, a plan has already been inaugurated for a series of programs to be given at the House of Cinema Workers in Moscow, presenting representative films of various American producers and directors. The program leads of this month with CHARLES CHAPLIN'S outstanding productions. SERGE EISENSTEIN, PUDOVKIN, GERRASIMOV, and other leading Russian directors and writers will read papers on CHAPLIN'S work and then participate in general discussions with the audience over a period of a week showing CHAPLIN'S picture.

This procedure will be followed with programs of the film works of D. W. GRIFFITH, JOHN FORD, FRANK CAPRA, ROUBEN MAMOULIN and others. KALATOZOV stated that on all American productions purchased, exhibition rights for showing in the U.S.S.R. will cover five year periods.

He will continue his selection of Hollywood productions, making recommendations to the Moscow authorities on such pictures as he feels will come within Soviet film policy. Last week KAIATOZOV negotiated a deal with SAMUEL GOLDWYN of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer for "North Star", "The Little Foxes" and "The Hurricane". It was said that these selections point to the general requirements of the Soviet industry as far as movies were concerned. KALATOZOV said that this policy was part of a plan for the cultural exchange of ideas of all Allied countries looking to a better understanding after the war. He said that these arrangements would be duplicated in other countries that were willing to cooperate. advised that in connection with the above negotiations, KAIATOZOV has apparently purchased most of his films to date from SAMUEL GOLDWYN of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios. He recently purchased the three pictures mentioned above for a price of $115,000.00 (4) U Another matter of interest in connection with KAIATOZOV who stated that on May 9. 1944. was reported by a reporter for "Time" magazine, called requesting an stated that his New York office asked him appointment with KALATOZOV. to obtain a story which would appear in that week's issue. advised him that KALATOZOV was tied up during the week and desired that the appointment be made the following week. The conversation terminated being unable to arrive at a definite and date for the interview. (4) W

In a recent conversation advised an unidentified man concerning KALATOZOV'S biography. She stated to this newspaperman that when in Georgia, Russia, KALATOZOV entered the Polytechnic Institute where he devoted all his leisure time to reading works of art and philosophy and even tried his hand at painting. At an early age he became fascinated with the idea of film production. Twenty years ago he began working in film production in one of the largest film studios, holding various jobs from laboratory worker to cameraman. He finally launched an independent production. His first steps were in the field of teacher shorts. After this came his first full length feature, "Gypsy Blood", then "Ten Days", and others. One of his most successful films was a full length documentary picture called "Swanetia" produced in 1931. This same year KALATOZOV began to take an interest in the theory of cinema production. He entered the Academy of Art and Science and after obtaining a degree, was appointed as a director in one of the biggest studios in the Soviet Union. From 1936 to 1943 he was in the Leningrad Studios as a director and that is where he made his picture "Wings of Victory", During the war KAIATOZOV collaborated in making the film of the "Siege of Leningrad". In the present war KALATOZOV participated in the Defense of Leningrad and was decorated by the Government with the Order of the Red Star. He was appointed here last year; in June he arrived in America () W

FRANK C. WALDROP, nationally known columnist, writing in the Washington, D. C. "Times Herald" of May 5, 1944 devoted his column to the large number of Russian propaganda agents operating in this country at the present time. He stated that there is pending now before the State Department a proposal by STALIN to confer numerous decorations upon certain persons in Hollywood. Those named were JACK WARNER, SAM GOIDWYN, EDWARD G. ROBINSON, WALTER HUSTON, OSCAR HOMOLKA, VICTOR FRANCEN, JAX LEYDA, MANNART KIPPERT and JORISHVENS. He stated that this was the first of a long list to be rewarded and that it was a result of their parts in making "Mission to Moscow" and "North Star". WALDROP stated that KAIATOZOV was behind this project and that he had been in Hollywood since August "to strengthen the artistic and commercial ties between the cinema people of the U.S. and those of the Soviet Union". He stated that KALATOZOV is listed with the United States State Department as a diplomatic representative.

The May 10th edition of the Los Angeles "Daily News" carried an article devoted to KALATOZOV'S activities in the U. S. film industry. It stated that in addition to the mutual exchange of motion pictures to bring about international understanding KALATOZOV was also planning an exchange of talent which will probably have to wait until after the war. The article stated that he hopes to eventually see American directors working in Soviet motion picture studios. In addition he would like to see the United States send technical crews along, both for the understanding it would give them of the Soviet industry and the opportunity it would give the Russians to observe the U. S. methods of work. The article further stated that at the present time there is a CHAPLIN program in progress in Moscow which was previously mentioned in this report and that the future agenda calls for seminar discussions of the work of JOHN FORD. FRANK CAPRA, D. W. CRIFFITH, LEWIS MILESTONE, and a seminar on the acting of BETTE DAVIS. KALATOZOV'S immediate interest in this country is to obtain wider distribution for Soviet films and a broader distribution of . American films in Russia. This article also stated that during the months he has been in the United States KALATOZOV frequently has run into the argument that we give only limited distribution to Soviet films because they are rampant with propaganda.

| { | has further advised that on May 14, 1944 KALATOZOV gave a dinner party at his home, 4744 Los Feliz Boulevard at which ROBERT ROSSEN, and several other prominent persons in Hollywood were in attendance (3) |
