ISCAP APPEAL NO. 2013-098, document no. 2 DECLASSIFICATION DATE: September 19, 2016

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, International Organizations Division

SUBJECT: RFE Guidance Line on U-2 Incident

1. You will recall that I told you that Nathan and Lunning took an unnecessarily hard line in the initial days of the U-2 incident. These were difficult days at best for all of us

50X1, E.O.13526

2. In the meantime, Munich apparently took a calm and reasoned approach to its coverage

50X1, E.O.13526

Although I have heard nothing on this directly from RFE New York, Bernie Yarrov told me on 13 May that Munich had come in with a strong dissent from Nathan's early hard line guidance. I attach a copy of the Munich message which makes slot of sense and is reassuring to me. Among other things, the message originated with Nowak and Miller in Fern's absence and indicates that Miller is shaping up very well indeed. While I have not seen the Polish New York desk commentary referred to in this message, I assume that it is one of Wierzbicki's and is one more proof to me that international commentary on such subjects should originate in Munich.

3. I talked to Archie by phone Friday night about this problem, among others, and he said that he felt the only ultimate solution to this continuing open sore is getting rid of such people as Nathan who simply cannot apparently adapt to the less blatant line necessary for credibility in such a situation.
In this connection, I was quite interested to see Eric Hazelhoff's reference to Col. Reuben Nathan whose policy disagreements with Archie are apparently becoming widely known within the organization.
