

November 17, 1976

Note from Royal Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs to the Embassy of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea in Oslo

Citation:

"Note from Royal Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs to the Embassy of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea in Oslo", November 17, 1976, Wilson Center Digital Archive, Dossier 14.1/45, 1970-1979, Archives Section, Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Norway. Obtained by Charles Kraus.

<https://wilson-center-digital-archive.dvincitest.com/document/134900>

Summary:

The Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs states that evidence of smuggling in the North Korean Embassy in Oslo is "incontrovertible" and the decision to expel embassy personnel "fully justified."

Credits:

This document was made possible with support from Kyungnam University

Original Language:

English

Contents:

Transcript - English

PTr/KE/cc 8.11.76.

Jnr. 28554/76 I

Gr. 14.1.45

The Royal Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs presents its compliments to the Embassy of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and has the honour, with reference to the Embassy's note of 23 October 1976, to state the following:

With regard to the comportment of members of the Embassy's staff, the Ministry has the honour to refer to the Secretary-General's remarks to the Chargé d'Affaires a.i. of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea on 18 October 1976 and to its communications to the Government of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea in the matter. The nature and scope of actions in contravention of Norwegian law, to which available evidence is incontrovertible, fully justified the Norwegian Government's decision to request the withdrawal of the members of the Embassy in question. Under these circumstances the Norwegian Government cannot bear any responsibility for possible negative effects on the relations between our two countries. The Norwegian Government would, however, express the hope that these relations will continue to develop in a friendly way.

The Royal Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Embassy of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea the assurance of its highest consideration.

Oslo, 17 November 1976

[official seal of the The Royal Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs]

To the Embassy of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, Oslo.