

March 16, 1960
Letter, G. Parthasarathi to S. Dutt

Citation:

"Letter, G. Parthasarathi to S. Dutt", March 16, 1960, Wilson Center Digital Archive, National Archives of India, Ministry of External Affairs, 1960, file no. 9(1) EAD/60, "Possibility of China Exploding Atom Bombs." Obtained by Vivek Prahladan.
<https://wilson-center-digital-archive.dvincitest.com/document/165239>

Summary:

The letter contains a copy of articles on the peaceful utilization of atomic energy and research work in the nuclear science in China, which could help Indian experts to understand China's capabilities in the nuclear science.

Original Language:

English

Contents:

Transcript - English

[...]

Embassy of India in China
Peking

No.13-A/60

16th March, 1960

My dear Foreign Secretary,

Please refer to my telegram No. 59 of 12th March. I am enclosing copies of articles on the peaceful utilization of atomic energy and research work in the field of nuclear science in China. Our experts might possibly get some idea of China's capabilities in the nuclear field from the information given in these articles.

Yours sincerely,

[signature]

(G. Parthasarthi)

Shri S. Dutt
Foreign Secretary
Ministry of External Affairs,
NEW DELHI.

[English translations of news stories appearing in Guangzhou ribao, Guangming ribao, and Wenhui pao concerning atomic energy research in China follow.]